AIM

The aim of this agreement is to support the partners in the educational process - the school, the students and parents - in ensuring success.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER POLICIES

This agreement relates most closely to the behaviour management and attendance policies. It impacts on our approach to the prospectus and the school profile. It is also relevant to many other policies such as child protection, equality and teaching and learning. This agreement supports positive ethos embodied in the Scholars' Education Trust ACE.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Headteacher will:

- ensure that the home-school agreement and other significant communications with parents and students are reviewed at least every two years in consultation with parents, students, staff and Governors.

Staff and students will:

- embrace the positive ethos embodied in the Scholars' Education Trust ACE outlined in the home-school agreement document.

Parents will:

- sign and adhere to the home-school agreement with the full intention of adhering to the rules and principles on joining the school.
- follow the school code as outlined in the home-school agreement.

The Governing Body will:

- review this agreement and the policy, under advice from the Headteacher every year.

MONITORING AND EVALUATION

This statement will be reviewed annually by the Headteachers.
